

SAP BusinessObjects Consultant

Job Description

SAP BusinessObjects professionals design, implement and deploy SAP business intelligence solutions (applications and technologies which are used to gather, provide access to, and analyze data and information about company operations) for end-to-end data warehousing and analytics.

Specific Duties and Responsibilities:

- Supervising process and functional design activities
- Creating functional requirements as an input to application design
- Developing and testing detailed functional designs for business solution components and prototypes
- Performing/supervising application build, test, and deploy activities
- Planning and executing data conversion activities (e.g., test data)
- Driving test planning and execution
- Training of internal staff on the SAP Business Objects Toolset

Qualifications

- Must have a solid foundation of experience in SAP BusinessObjects XI3.0 or above with multiple client/project exposure
- Ability to multitask on various projects/clients at the same time
- Ability to work both independently and in teams
- Continuously shows the dedication to CONTAX by going above and beyond the call of duty
- Excellent communication skills

Asset Qualifications

- 2-5 years of IT consulting experience
- Minimum 2 years of experience in SAP Business Objects implementation (SAP or other)
- Experience in SAP BusinessObjects Frontend tools. Specifically Xcelsius, Web Intelligence, Crystal and Universe designer
- Experience in SAP BusinessObjects Enterprise Installation, sizing and best practice
- Experience in Microsoft SQL Server
- Experience in SAP Data Services

Additional Qualifications of Value

- SAP BW – Business Objects Integration
 - SAP BW experience
 - SAP ECC Experience
-